Background Information:

History: Dr. Robert Sterling of Joliet, graduated from Joliet Township High School in 1960 and went on to receive his B.A. in history from Wheaton College in 1964, his M.A. in 1967 and Ph.D. in 1974 from Northern Illinois University with a focus on Civil War history. Dr. Sterling went on to teach history at Joliet Junior College. In addition to his teaching career, Sterling published several Joliet and Will County history books including: "A Pictorial History of Will County, Vols I & II," "Joliet: A Pictorial History," "Joliet: A Pictorial History: Transportation and Industry," "Joliet: Then and Now," and "Joliet Prisons: Images in Time." The Dr. Robert Sterling Photograph Collection is a compilation of the photographs used by Dr. Sterling in these publications, and that he collected over decades of researching Joliet history.

Scope and Content Arrangement: The Dr. Robert Sterling Photograph Collection contains original and duplicates of photographs compiled by Dr. Sterling over decades of researching Joliet history. Maintaining Dr. Sterling's original order, all photographs are organized into series by the content of the image, and the series have been arranged alphabetically:
